

itinerary

itinerary

A planned route or schedule of a trip.

immunization

immunization

A process of becoming immune to a disease, typically through vaccination.

exchange currency

exchange currency

Exchanging money of one country for the equivalent in another currency.

accommodation

accommodation

Lodging rented temporarily, as in a hotel or vacation rental.

customs

customs

The government agency that administers trade laws and collects duties on imported goods.

travel advisory

travel advisory

A government warning of possible risks associated with traveling to a certain country or region.

travelogue

travelogue

A movie, book, or illustrated lecture about the sights visited on a trip.

overbooked

overbooked

Booking more reservations than there are seats available, to compensate for no-shows.

international driving permit

international driving permit

A document that allows the holder to drive a private vehicle in another nation.

adapter or converter

adapter or converter

A device that adapts electrical connections and voltage to fit overseas outlets.

packing list

packing list

A list outlines what items need to be packed for the trip.

embassy

embassy

The official residence or office of an ambassador.

frequent flyer program

frequent flyer program

An airline loyalty program that rewards frequent passengers with points, miles, or other perks for traveling often on that airline.

duty free

duty free

Stores that sell goods tax and duty-free, offering savings to travelers.