

What's My Line? Question Formulation

General yes-or-no questions that could be asked at the beginning of a "What's My Line?" game:

1. Do you work indoors?
2. Do you work outdoors?
3. Is your job considered white-collar?
4. Is your job considered blue-collar?
5. Do you work with your hands?
6. Do you work with machinery or equipment?
7. Do you interact with the public in your job?
8. Do you provide a service?
9. Do you sell a product?
10. Is your job related to the entertainment industry?
11. Is your job related to education or teaching?
12. Is your job related to healthcare?
13. Is your job in an office setting?
14. Do you wear a uniform or special attire for your job?
15. Do you work for a large organization or corporation?
16. Do you own your own business?
17. Is your job physically demanding?
18. Is your job considered creative or artistic?
19. Do you need a special license or certification for your job?
20. Is your job something that involves travel?

Specific questions you could ask once you have some initial information about the contestant's occupation:

1. Do you work in the medical field?
2. Do you work with children?
3. Is your job related to food or cooking?
4. Do you perform in front of an audience?
5. Is your job related to sports or physical fitness?
6. Do you work in the technology industry?
7. Do you design or create things?
8. Is your job related to law or legal services?
9. Do you repair or fix things?
10. Is your job related to transportation or logistics?
11. Do you work in the financial sector?
12. Is your job related to agriculture or farming?
13. Do you work in the media or publishing industry?
14. Do you work with animals?
15. Is your job related to construction or building?
16. Do you provide personal care services, like hairdressing or massage therapy?
17. Do you work in retail or sales?
18. Is your job related to environmental science or conservation?
19. Do you work in the government or public sector?
20. Is your job associated with the arts, such as painting, sculpture, or music?